Leading and Managing People - QQI

Level 6

LPD009

Leading and Managing People – QQI Level 6

This comprehensive programme will incorporate extensive insight, exploration and practice of the skills required to manage and lead others in either business or community environments. This programme will examine the theories that underpin best practice in leading, interaction with and the motivation of direct reports both individually and within a team. Participants will be invited to engage in a process of reflection and exploration of theoretical models introduced through designed experiential exercises and skills practice, which aim to give real learning of how these theories apply to their roles and business needs. Core Competencies around planning for individual and group discussions and communicating effectively will be demonstrated and assessed.

Leadership Skills – Exploration and Development

- You will explore and gain understanding of yourself as a Manager/Leader using a number of different methodologies including DiSC assessment Tool (Optional)

- Using a specific framework you will develop a forward focused strategy of how you intend to be as leader/manager and what you will commit to doing to achieve this.
- You will be introduced to and practise the Communication Tools defined by industry experts as the best practices required to be able to manage and interact effectively with Direct Reports, Peers and Senior Management.
- You will gain experience of and put into practice a methodology for dealing with different types of conflict and confidently managing yourself to achieve win- win solutions.

Tools for Effective Leadership of Others

- You will be introduced to and learn how to set clear and effective performance goals and objectives which motivate and empower your Direct Reports
- You will learn, understand and practice how to have effective performance discussions with your Direct reports using the Communication model introduced on days one and two.
- You will understand and gain appreciation of the globally recognised leadership styles model and how best to apply each style in different situations and with different individuals that report to you.
- You will gain clarity about what motivates direct reports and then learn how to apply this theory to your own specific work context and team, which can encourage Direct report engagement and individual ownership.
- You will learn about and put into practice a model for preparing and conducting effective meeting that will ensure productive outcomes.

DiSC profiling will also be available as an accompanying self-awareness tool and learning intervention.

Who should participate?

Supervisors, Managers, Leaders at different levels of development, be they new to the role or those wishing to develop their skills further.

During the application process we will, however, take the time to discuss your needs and expectations to check that this programme is a good fit for you. Our courses attract diverse and motivated people from a wide range of backgrounds. We find the learning experience co-created with such a diverse and committed group is very powerful. We believe you will too.

How do we train and support you?

In-House Courses

For In-House courses, the tutor will contact you in advance to discuss the course programme in more detail in order to tailor it specifically for your organisation.

Course Manual

Delegates will receive a very comprehensive course manual.

Additional Support

To assist and continue with skills development, we facilitate via email a post learning reflective practice utilising skills practice sessions recorded during the course. This assists delegates in embedding new learning, gives further support and enables them to define any further actions required.

This programme offers one to one or group coaching as an additional element to further support the delegate and embed the learning process.

Programme accreditation

This course is QQI accredited at Level 6 on the National Framework of Qualifications. The course meets the requirements of Component Specification 6N2191, a QQI Minor Award. Delegates who successfully complete the course and pass the assessment will receive QQI certification.
